DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-11, 27, and 28, drawn to an apparatus for transferring objects, classified in class 198, subclass 470.1.
 - II. Claims 12-26, drawn to a method of transferring objects, classified in class 198, subclass 617.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus can be practiced another materially different process such as releasing the object from the pick-up means whereby the object moves toward the pick-up means to the second location.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Category A, apparatus gripper species.

Species 1, the gripper comprising a piercing probe formed by an expandable needle.

Species 2, the gripper comprising a piercing probe formed by a barbed endpoint.

Art Unit: 3651

Species 3, the gripper comprising a piercing probe formed by a screw.

Species 4, the gripper comprising tweezers.

Species 5, the gripper comprising a gear and finger.

Species 6, the gripper comprising a temperature controllable surface.

Category B, methods of engaging a gripper with the object.

Species 1, the method of engaging the gripper with the object by piercing the object and expanding a portion of the gripper.

Species 2, the method of engaging the gripper with the object by piercing the object with a barbed endpoint.

Species 3, the method of engaging the gripper with the object by screwing the gripper into the object.

Species 4, the method of engaging the gripper with the object by clamping the object with tweezers.

Species 5, the method of engaging the gripper with the object by clamping the object with a gear and finger.

Species 6, the method of engaging the gripper with the object by using a temperature controllable surface.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from each of the above categories, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the each species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

4. A telephone call was made to Spencer Fane Britt & Browne, LLP on May 25, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mark A. Deuble whose telephone number is (571) 272-6912. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday except for alternate Fridays.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Katherine A Matecki can be reached on (571) 272-6951. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
